

GAUGER CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

Raid on Bristol Distillery May Be Followed by Sensation.

BRISTOL, Tenn., April 4.—Following the seizure of Bristol distillery, No. 108, late Saturday evening by a half-dozen United States revenue officers under J. D. Dyer, of Washington, and the arrest of the United States storekeeper and gauger, M. F. Tester, it has just become known that the charge against the gauger is adding and abetting the owners of the distillery in an alleged plan to defraud the Government in the affixing of stamps.

Some 6,000 gallons of alcohol, intended for pharmaceutical purposes, was seized. Collector for Tennessee, R. S. Sharp, of Nashville, will arrive tomorrow to look into the situation.

A sensation may follow the seizure. The owners of the plant are wealthy manufacturers of Bristol.

VANDERBILT BUILDS FATHER MEMORIAL

Newport Y. M. C. A. Home Is to Cost $110,000 Without Furnishings.

NEWPORT, R. I., April 4.—Alfred G. Vanderbilt is erecting a memorial to his father, Cornelius Vanderbilt, a magnificent new home for the Newport branch of the Y. M. C. A. It will cost $110,000 without furnishings.

When the structure is completed in September and dedicated, the officers of the association will be at their wits' end to find the money to sustain it. The revenue from the rooms the building will contain will not be sufficient to cover the plan, which is being carried in Newport. It is wondered how the funds will be found. Perhaps someone will be found who will endow the new home.

VANDERBILTS LEAD IN YALE DONATIONS

Have Given More Than Any Other Family in College's History.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 4.—A gift of $60,000 to purchase the Ezekiel G. Standford house, adjoining Vanderbilt Hall, on Temple street, by Frederick W. Vanderbilt, which was announced the past week, brought the total of gifts to Yale up to $2,500,000.

So far as is known, no other family has ever made so many handsome gifts to Yale during its 200 years' history as have the Vanderbilts in this country.

LOVESICK FARMER COMMITS SUICIDE

GRAFTON, W. Va., April 4.—Carl Duncan, aged twenty-five years, a young farmer, shot himself to death near the Baptist Church on the county road at Seven Mile, Cabell county, W. Va. It is believed his act was prompted by his love for Miss Bertha Floyd, the daughter of a well-known farmer of Union district. These words were on a note found in his pocket:

"Good-by, everybody; good-by Bertha; you are the cause of all this. CARL."

It is said that Duncan sought to end his own life, and also the girl's last Saturday night, but was prevented.
